A beached moment of the lives are working the field

Tradecorp organized among all lovers of agriculture the second annual photo contest consists of two semi calls. Already it missed the first part.

Photographers are the winners: Miguel Angel Torrijos Hijón, with his picture "The Last Light of Day" (above) taken in Cuenca; Jesus Alcaraz, with "Vivid Red", taken in a greenhouse in Almeria; and Alvaro Rodriguez, "Better with Phylgreen".

This photography contest is to capture the first person view of people who live near agriculture and is an opportunity to show the world what really is your job. It does not take a great professional photography, only to have a camera or a mobile close and capture the right moment.

Tradecorp thanks all those who have participated and encouraged to continue doing so for the second round of the competition and the Grand Final of the contest which ends on 20 January 2016.

Tradecorp Camp 2015

It has already been the third edition of the Camp that Tradecorp organizes for its distributors and partners. In a privileged environment, the southern area of ??the Sierra de Gredos, in the hands of the best professionals of leisure and well in an environment of total investment language, the best of each house could enjoy a unique experience and that certainly has marked impression on them.

They have been intense days fifteen in one of the camps in which Vaughan has played, enjoyed, laughed, learned, and at the very end has also cried and above all "has embraced" a lot.

This action was carried out in the first half of July, in Candeleda (Ávila) and finally, the night before collection, the parents could enjoy a night of living in the hostel Oropesa where they dined together with Richard Vaughan, creator a proprietary method for improving English with own radio and TV networks and promoter of these camps, with an experience of over 40 years and recognized in the field of education. To close the evening devoted a few words of thanks for trusting him and offering some valuable guidelines in the face of English training for children.
