Valle Cervantes Chacón, new Head of the Production Department of Agroseguro

Agroseguro has promoted Valle Cervantes Chacón to the position of Head of the Production Department. He succeeds Pilar Feijoó González, who since June 8 went on to hold the position of Head of Internal Control in the Production and Communication area.

Ms. Cervantes, who studied Business Studies at the Complutense University of Madrid, joined Agroseguro in 1995. Four years later, she began working in the Production Department, where she has performed multiple tasks and assumed different responsibilities. , until in 2016 she acceded to the position of Head of the Contracting section of said department.

In his new position he will be responsible, among other activities, for the coordination, planning and supervision of the processes related to the management of the contracting and the issuance of receipts, as well as the elaboration of all the regulations related to these processes. In addition, it will be responsible for the direct relationship with the co-insurance entities in the provision of all the services that these require from Agroseguro in the commercialization of agricultural insurance.

YOU MAY ALSO LIKE:

??Agroseguro starts with 3 million euros The payment of compensation for the flooding of the Ebro flood