Rodrigo Sánchez Haro takes over Carmen Ortiz as the new head of the CAPDER of the Junta de Andalucía

Rodrigo Sánchez Haro received on June 9th the Ministry of Agriculture, Fishing and Rural Development of the Andalusian Government, from Carmen Ortiz, his predecessor in charge, who thanked him for his management and the work done at the front of this Counseling.

Rodrigo Sánchez Haro was born in Turre (Almería) in 1969. He holds a law degree and is a deputy and has been a spokesman for the Employment, Enterprise and Trade Commission in the Andalusian Parliament. The new Minister of Agriculture, Fisheries and Rural Development has also been deputy mayor of Turre Town Hall in the periods 1999-2003 and 2007-2011, and councilor in the opposition from 2011 to 2015.

Source: CAPDER