Olive Oils of Spain, at the Salon de Gourmets 2016

British artist Joe Hill made a spectacular 3D live drawing "the place where the oil is born." Groundbreaking, open to the world, showcase the best quality ... the stand of olive oils of Spain, will be informative regarding the unmissable event of the Premium food.

Olive Oils of Spain leads the International Exhibition of Gourmet Club bet the most disruptive event. Visitors will discover "the place where the oil comes" through a spectacular stand that will serve as a gateway to the culture of the olive oils, both for domestic and international visitors.

On the opening day, the British Joe Hill, known for his works of street art made around the globe, made in view of attendees a anamorfosis that show the public "where born oil", playing with the outlook for create a three dimensional effect. Work that will be exposed on the stand. other new initiatives such as boosting international promoters, the Enjoy area for tasting Smoothies Olive Detox or cylindrical Oleoteca of Olive Oils with over 400 olive oil extra virgin shall also be submitted that the public can taste what throughout the fair.

Source: Olive Oils of Spain