The fourth digital edition of the magazine ECA FRUIT of the month of May, edited by SIETE Agromarketing and e-Comercio Agrario, is already at your disposal. In it you will find the most up-to-date information of the last four-month period of the horticultural sector. And specifically, in this edition, you can not miss the special "Tropical: the kings of Europe", where we spoke with Josep Sanchís, interviews with the Minister of Agriculture, Rodrigo Sánchez Haro and the General Director of the Food Industry, Fernando Burgaz. These are some of the topics developed in this complete publication, through opinion articles and full-time reports and interviews with some of the most prominent figures in the sector. There is also no lack of information related to the main companies and events.
